

This is me:

This QR code
Scavenger hunt is a (brief) biography about me!

I was born in the northern BC town of

But my parents
wanted to leave the north, and discovered
Southern Vancouver Island....

Here is my brother and I, he leading and I following our close family friends.

I wasn't all that interested in computers in high school

But by the the time I started working as a Technology progressed to such an extent that I could see that being computer literate was not only fun and informative, it was critical to the future of education. So off I went to

In the meantime, my day job changed from Elementary to Middle School

And in 2008 I got the opportunity to work as associate faculty at Royal Roads. This is my third go at LRNT 505 with Taj, and every year we have done a different intro. This one has definitely been the geekiest! But I have long since embraced my inner, and outer, geekiness. Occasional moments of Dork and Nerd as well...

Here is a picture of me and my family

Thanks for participating in the Lisa QR Scavenger Hunt!

